2024

Celebrating the best in Asia-Pacific travel, DestinAsian's 17th annual Readers' Choice Awards is our most robust roster to date, with an expanded listing for boutique lodgings and new categories that separately spotlight city hotels and resorts in Indonesia, Thailand, Malaysia, and Vietnam. The result is a roll call of 230 properties that you, the voters, deemed to be the top places to stay in the region, compiled here alongside your favorite cities, islands, cruise lines, airlines, and more. Turn the page to discover this year's winners — thanks to you and your fellow readers, the lineup is more exciting than ever.

HOTELS & RESORTS

In the survey that determines these results, we asked readers to name their top 10 picks for hotels and resorts in 17 countries and territories across Asia Pacific. The responses did not disappoint, with a mix of enduring gems and stylish newcomers that together represent the crème de la crème of hospitality in the region.

AUSTRALIA

- 1 Capella Sydney
DestinAsian readers have quickly embraced the first Capella property outside Asia, which occupies a historic sandstone building at the Circular Quay end of Sydney's CBD. Opened last March, the hotel features 192 meticulously designed rooms and suites, a swanky destination spa, and a skylighted indoor swimming pool, not to mention an expansive art collection.

CAMBODIA

- 1 Anantara Angkor Resort
This perennially popular Siem Reap retreat comes with just 39 butler-serviced suites arranged around a courtyard swimming pool. The serene design blends contemporary comfort with traditional Khmer style, while guests looking to maximize their stay have a variety of immersive experiences to choose from, whether that be a private tour of the ruins of nearby Angkor or a boat trip on Tonle Sap, Southeast Asia's largest lake.

- 2 Park Hyatt Siem Reap

CHINA

- 1 Banyan Tree Shanghai On The Bund
A front-row perspective on the Huangpu River awaits guests at this 130-room waterfront hotel in the North Bund area, with round window-side tubs providing a perfect perch for soaking up the views of China's largest city. Other highlights include a rooftop bar, an upscale Cantonese dining room, and a three-level spa where the 150-minute Royal Banyan experience is the treatment to book.

HONG KONG

- 1 The Ritz-Carlton, Hong Kong
Billing itself as the world's highest hotel—it occupies the 102nd to 118th floors of the International Commerce Centre in West Kowloon—Hong Kong's Ritz-Carlton offers an undeniably elevating experience. Apart from the dizzying views, there's Michelin-starred dining, superb service, and Ozone, the highest bar on the planet.

- 2 Four Seasons Hotel Hong Kong
- 3 Conrad Hong Kong
- 4 JW Marriott Hotel Hong Kong

- 9 The Peninsula Hong Kong
- 10 Island Shangri-La, Hong Kong

INDIA

- 1 Alila Fort Bishangarh
One of India's most beguiling fort hotels is tucked in the hills north of the Rajasthani capital of Jaipur. Originally designed for combat, the meticulously restored 18th-century stronghold is now fitted out for serious comfort, with 59 pared-back suites and a menu serving traditional Rajput hunter-style cooking. Horseback excursions, hot air ballooning, and jeep safaris in the Sariska Tiger Reserve are just some of the adventures awaiting guests.

INDONESIA (RESORTS)

1 The Apurva Kempinski Bali
A standout even among the stiff five-star competition of southern Bali’s Nusa Dua enclave, the 475-room Apurva (whose apt name means “one of a kind” in Sanskrit) boasts a stunning cliff-top lobby, a transformative spa, and a gamut of food and beverage concepts that keep readers coming back again and again, including aquarium dining experience Koral and lounge-cum-graffiti artist’s studio L’Atelier by Cyril Kongo.

INDONESIA (CITY HOTELS)

1 Four Seasons Hotel Jakarta
The top-ranked hotel in Jakarta sports Alexandra Champalimaud–designed interiors (think French art deco touches and wall friezes depicting clove and nutmeg, just one of many nods to the city’s early days as a spice entrepôt) and a lushly landscaped pool area by Bill Bensley. Top-floor Italian dining room Alto has been a hit since the hotel’s 2016 debut, as has the handsome, maritime-themed Nautilus

Bar. More than one reader gushed about the “fabulous service.”

JAPAN

- 1 The Ritz-Carlton, Tokyo
Taking up the top nine floors of a 53-story tower in the Roppongi district, The Ritz-Carlton, Tokyo has views to spare from all of its 245 smartly appointed rooms. Headlining the hotel’s culinary offerings is the newly opened Héritage by Kei Kobayashi, a contemporary French restaurant whose Nagano-born namesake chef is best known for his three-Michelin-starred Kei in Paris.

MACAU

- 1 Four Seasons Hotel Macao Cotai Strip
Connected to shopping arcades, a casino, and the neighboring Venetian complex, this readers’ favorite is a destination unto itself. Five swimming pools lend the 360-room property an oasis-like quality, while the sumptuous interior decor pays tribute to Macau’s rich Chinese and Portuguese heritage. There are countless dining and entertainment options in the immediate vicinity, including the Four Seasons’ own Michelin-starred Cantonese restaurant Zi Yat Heen and elegant teahouse Xiao Ting.

MALAYSIA (CITY HOTELS)

- 1 Four Seasons Hotel Kuala Lumpur
The Four Seasons’ location at the heart of the Golden Triangle neighborhood puts it within walking distance of an array of restaurants and malls, making it “the perfect base for a shopping trip,” opined one reader. With half a dozen bars and dining options, an award-winning spa, and a seventh-floor outdoor swimming pool overlooking KLCC Park, the hotel also tempts guests just to stay put.

MALDIVES

- 1 The Ritz-Carlton Maldives, Fari Islands
One of three resort islands in the mini man-made archipelago of Fari, the Ritz-Carlton Maldives takes its circular design inspiration (the work of Kerry Hill Architects) from the swirling flow of water currents and ocean breezes. Most of the 100 boldly contemporary beachfront and overwater villas are round in shape, as is the ring-like spa, which is set on stilts above an azure lagoon.

NEW ZEALAND

- 1 Park Hyatt Auckland
Park Hyatt's debut property in New Zealand overlooks the waterfront in Auckland's buzzy Wynyard Quarter, with 195 guest rooms featuring Maori design elements such as woven tukutuku wall panels and sweeping views across Waitemata Harbour. Local produce stars at signature restaurant Onemata, while the in-house spa makes use of native ingredients like glacial clay and manuka honey.

PHILIPPINES

- 1 Shangri-La The Fort, Manila
Floor-to-ceiling windows capitalize on the views over Metro Manila from this towering hotel in the Bonifacio Global City business district, but it's the plethora of facilities that are the real draw. There's a sprawling 8,000-square-meter fitness center and spa, Kerry Sports Manila, as well as a diverse crop of dining venues and lounges. Raging Bull Chophouse & Bar is a standout for anyone serious about their steaks.
